Step 1: Initial Filing Forms -These forms are required to start a Divorce Petition

1. Appearance
 - a. Ensure the box is checked for "I request that this Court issue its Order dissolving the marriage of the parties and for all other just and proper relief until this matter is finalized..."
2. Verified Petition for Dissolution of Marriage
 - a. If you request a Provisional Order (i.e., temporary orders issued by a judge), a Notice of Provisional Hearing will be provided to each party to address the stated issues. The court will schedule a Provisional Hearing immediately in a divorce with minor children and determine the provisional request within twenty-one days. Typical matters for Provisional Hearings relate to temporary orders on custody, parenting time, child support, possession of assets, minimum payments on pending debts, and other relevant matters, until the final order of the Decree of Dissolution of Marriage.
3. Summons
 - a. Complete only the IN RE THE MARRIAGE OF..." and "TO RESPONDENT" on page 1.
4. Verified Motion of Fee Waiver and Order on Fee Waiver, if needed
 - a. If you cannot pay any of the filing fees or other costs of this action because you lack sufficient income or resources, you may complete the Verified Motion of Fee Waiver for consideration by the Court. If granted, an Order for Fee Waiver will be filed.
 - b. This must be submitted to the court prior to filing a Verified Petition for Dissolution of Marriage.
 - c. Generally, decisions are made within 10 business days. If granted, the Order for Fee Waiver is valid for 60 days.

Service may be administered by Mail or by Sherriff. It is your responsibility to verify that the filing was properly served (i.e., received by the Respondent). If the filing was not properly served, it is the responsibility of the Petitioner to take action (e.g., the address was incomplete, Respondent is not at the listed address, Certified Mailing is unclaimed). You can check to see whether the Respondent was served at mycase.in.gov.

- To Serve by Mail: The Clerk's office will send Initial Filing by Certified Mail on your behalf. If accepted by the Respondent, the "green card" should show by whom, to reflect the party has been properly served. If the Respondent does not sign the green card because they are not home when the mail comes and they do not later claim the mailing from the post office, they have not been served.
- Additional Service Options:
 - Service by Sherriff: Sherriff Fee of $28 to be paid to the Court Clerk.
 - Service by Publication option when Respondent's Address is Unknown, where the service is published in a local newspaper or advertisement that the Respondent is likely to view
 - Service by Acknowledgement may take place at the Clerk's Office. This is when the Respondent is present and signs the Summons confirming that documents were received at the time of filing or at a later time.
