Support Resources for Required Parenting Forms and Actions

1. Child Support Obligation Worksheet
 - a. Use of the online Child Support Calculator is strongly recommended to determine child support calculations. To access the Child Support Calculator online, use this QR code or the links below:
 - i. MS Word version of Child Support Obligation Worksheet
 - ii. Fillable PDF version of Child Support Obligation Worksheet
 - b. Additional Tools available to support completion of the Child Support Obligation worksheet include:
 - i. Indiana Child Support Guidelines. This is a direct link to the Indiana Rules of Court Child Support Rules and Guidelines. In general, child support guidelines are guiding principles that assist Courts in creating and changing child support awards, which are court-ordered payments typically made by one parent to another to support their child(ren). These agreements are typically based on the previously mentioned parenting time plan.
 - ii. Child Support Calculator. This is a direct link to the Child Support Calculator to assist in calculating the amount for weekly payments.
 - iii. Guideline Schedules for Weekly Support Payments. This is a direct link to a guideline that uses the 'combined weekly adjusted income' of the parent and the number of child(ren) to suggest a weekly support payment amount.

2. Notice of Requirement to Attend a Parenting Course

- a. No filing action with the court is required, however, parties must register for and complete a Parenting Course within 45 days of filing the Petition and prior to the final hearing.
- b. A Parenting Course is required in any dissolution or separation proceeding involving children under the age of eighteen (18) years old. Both parties to the proceedings must attend and complete a course. There are both in-person and online options.
- c. Upon completion, parent will receive a Certificate of Completion. This must be filed with the Court and should include your case number when filing.
- d. In any dissolution, separation or paternity proceeding involving children under the age of eighteen (18) years of age, BOTH parties to the proceedings must attend and complete a parenting course (unless a party has attended a program within 2 years). Please schedule your class immediately so it can be completed before the final hearing. Please reach out to Courtney Etheridge, Floyd County Family Law Navigator (Phone: 812-948-5410x572; Email: cetheridge@floydcounty.in.gov) to learn more about program options.

Please remember to file your Certificate of Completion with the Court and include your case number on the certificate when filing.

3. Parents should be in agreement on the following topics:

- Legal custody of all minor children. There are a number of important topics to discuss when determining legal custody. These include the following:
 - Educational decisions. There should be agreement on who will be responsible for making decisions related to your child(ren)'s education, up through post-secondary education (meaning college). For post-secondary education (meaning college), there is a worksheet available for parents to use to assist in these decisions, if desired.
 - Post-Secondary Education Worksheet:
 - MS Word version of the Post-Secondary Education Worksheet
 - Fillable PDF version of the Post-Secondary Education Worksheet
 - Religious decisions. There should be agreement on who will be responsible for making current and future religious decisions for your child(ren). For example, parents should be in agreement on who will make major decisions as it relates to religion, such as if the child(ren) will attend religious training or classes.
 - Medical decisions. There should be agreement on who will be responsible for making all decisions related to your child(ren)'s medical care.
- Maintenance of medical, dental, and optical insurance. There should be agreement on who is responsible for maintaining all insurance coverage through employment, or Health Insurance Marketplace, or by government provided insurance for your child(ren).
- Parenting time. Parenting time includes who is responsible for physically caring for the child(ren), and when this care should occur. Parenting time can follow the Indiana Parenting Time Guidelines OR follow a schedule that does NOT align with the Indiana Parenting Time Guidelines.
 - Parenting Time Guidelines. In general, parenting time guidelines provide tips and guidance for creating a parenting plan and visitation schedule. These guidelines provide examples of what is important in a parenting schedule, but should be modified to fit the unique needs of your individual family. When parenting time is equally shared, parents must be in agreement on all expected expenses related to the upbringing of the child(ren).

- Parenting time credit. According to the Indiana Parenting Time Guidelines, a credit should be awarded for the number of overnights each year that the child(ren) spend with the other parent according to the parenting time plan.
 - Parenting Time Credit Worksheet:
 - MS Word version of the Parenting Time Credit Worksheet
 - Fillable PDF version of the Parenting Time Credit Worksheet
- Parenting Plan. This is a direct link to a tool to support creating this calendar online. There are five important topics to discuss when creating a parenting plan:
 - Calendar. A calendar will need to be created that outlines where your child(ren) will be each day of the year, including holidays, school breaks, and vacations.
 - Transportation. Agreement on how your child(ren) will travel between residences, and how costs for this transportation will be divided.
 - Communication. Agreement on how you will communicate with one another, and what information about the child(ren) needs to be shared with the other parent.
 - Problem solving. Agreement on how to resolve disagreements that arise about the parenting time schedule. For example, going to mediation.
 - Revising. Agreement on when and how you will meet again to make changes to your parenting plan as your child(ren) grow.
- Taxes. There should be agreement on who will include the child(ren) on their annual taxes.
- Annual uninsured medical expenses. There should be agreement on who is responsible for any annual uninsured medical expenses for your child(ren).
